Well, I overslept today. I didn't set my alarm last night before I went to bed and so I woke up late. Now, in the grand scheme of things, it's not a big deal for me to wake up late most days. I have the luxury of working at the office or from home or from really anywhere I have my laptop and cell phone, so long as I get things done on time. And you all have graciously allowed that to be the case! Thank you.

As I rolled over and saw that it was 8:30 and that I had slept over TEN hours, I started thinking about how often we treat life like I treated this morning. I could have had a different start to my day if I had prepared last night, if I had been intentional last night.

So often we just take things as they come, if they come. But what would happen if we were intentional about how we lived and approached life? What would happen if we were really intentional, if we really planned for our faith lives?

This week I encourage you (and I commit myself) to make a plan for spiritual growth. Maybe it's setting aside five or ten minutes to read scripture every day. Maybe it's setting aside five or ten minutes to pray. Maybe it's taking five minutes to just sit in silence and listen for God's voice. Whatever it is you choose to do, I promise it will be more productive with preparation and intentionality!
